

Technical Support Intern

Save Darfur Canada (SDC) is a not-for-profit national coalition of organizations advocating for the Canadian government to play a greater role in ending the crisis in Darfur, Sudan.

Our operating model distributes responsibility and leadership among a dynamic and always evolving team. The success of SDC depends in large part on the hard work and enthusiasm of interns and coordinators who are often un-paid. New interns will have the opportunity to take on increasingly greater leadership and responsibility within the organization.

This position covers a variety of tasks such as providing general technical support, discussing and resolving technical challenges as they arise, recommending and/or making improvements to SDC's current technical systems, and being involved in the start-up of new media and multimedia teams.

The main responsibilities of this intern position will depend on the qualifications and experience of the interested candidate.

Application deadline: Position will be removed from the website as soon as it is filled

Start and end dates: Begins immediately; position length depends on the level of involvement chosen by the candidate

Hourly commitment: A minimum of 2 hours per week; ideally 4-5 hours per week

Location: SDC office in Montréal

Remuneration: Volunteer position (Please note this position can be treated as an internship for school credit if approved by the institution attended.)

Please e-mail an application package consisting of cover letter, resume with two or more references, and completed Volunteer Information Form to John, Internship Coordinator at john@sdcanada.org, and we will assess your skills and arrange an interview. You can expect to receive a response within two weeks of submitting your application package.

If you are not available to volunteer now but are interested in joining the SDC team after the summer months, please feel free to submit an application package, and we will process your application for a position beginning at a later date.
